FROM APRIL 5. TO APRIL 12. 1739.

NEW-YORK, March 14. 1738,9.

ON Monday the twelfth Inst. early in the Morning a Paper was publish'd and affixed on all the Market-Houses, many Corner Houses and other Publick Places in this City; and also a Copy of it delivered to each of the Candidates, which Paper was in the following Words.

Many of the Electors of the Two,
To the Electors of the Four,
Send Greeting.

Gentlemen,

WE cannot without some Resentment in our Minds (tho' for Peace-Sake we are loth by Words to express it) hear of many Falshoods most industriously inculcated by some of you, against the two Members we have requested to stand as Candidates at the ensuing Election; we are far from charging all or a Majority of you with doing so; we suspect only a few, that from private Views and aspiring at a Domination over this City, and despising Moderation, Equality, and a just Ballance, have set despicable Hands at Work, who stick at nothing in the Way they take, to spread such Calumnies amongst us: there are many Witnesses, that our Two cannot be supposed to do the Things imputed to them; for before we resolved they should stand, we interrogated them to the Questions following, or to that Purpose, to which they gave Answers to the following Purpose; and in order to obviate the Calumnies spread abroad concerning these two Gentlemen, we find it necessary to publish the same Questions with their Answers.

Question 1. If you shall be elected a Representative for this City in the ensuing General Assembly, will you do the best you can for the Benefit of this Colony in General, and of this City in particular, and promote the Interest, Trade and Commerce thereof?

Answer. I will.

Question 2. Will you, directly or indirectly, consent to, or connive at the Granting a Support, for Five Years, or any greater Nunber of Years than One? This Question is demanded of you, because the Practice of Granting a Support for Five Years, was not introduced into this Colony, till the first of the two late long Assemblies, each of which did twice give a Five Years Support; and by unhappy Experience we have thence found, that the Governor hath been made too much independent of the People, the Means of the Redress of publick Grievances hath in a great Measure been taken away, and such Laws as were needful for the Country have been rendred difficult to be obtained, which have tended during the two last long Assemblies, to the great Grievance and Oppression of the People of this Colony.

Answer. I will not, directly or indirectly, consent to or connive at the granting a Support for Five Years, or any greater Number of Years than one.

Quest. 3. Will you, directly or indirectly, consent to or connive at the granting of any publick Money of this Colony without Appropriation, thereby putting it in Men's Power to waste and squander it away, contrary to the Intent of the Giver, as too often heretofore has been done?

Ans. I will not.

Quest. 4 Will you do your best Endeavours, That the Minutes of the Assembly be printed with the Names of all the Voters to any Material Question, if demanded by any one Member, pro and con as they voted, and also the Names of the neutral Persons, That we may see who have best discharged their Duty?

Ans. I will.

Quest. 5. Will you do your Endeavour that an Act may be passed, For the frequent Electing of Representatives to serve in General Assembly, that our Trustees may not (as too often heretofore) turn Lords and petty Tyrants over us, studying to support and continue their own Domination, and neglecting the Grievances and Interest of the People of this Colony; and will you use all Means in your Power to obtain His Majesty's Royal Assent thereto?

Ans. I will.

Quest. 6. Will you use your utmost Endeavours that an Act may be passed, To preserve the Freedom of Elections, and to prevent Bribery and Corruption therein, and particularly, That Elections may be by BALLOT, as in the Neighbouring Colonies; and will you use your best and sincere Endeavours, That His Majesty's Royal Assent may be had thereto?

Answ. I will.

Quest. 7. Will you accept of any Office for your self, that is in the Gift of the Governor, or make Interest for any such Office for any other Person, during such Time as you shall continue an Assemblyman, or will you accept of any Promise during your being an Assemblyman of such Office to be conferred on you, or any other Person, after you shall be out of the Assembly?

Answ. I will do neither.

Quest. 8. Will you do your utmost Endeavours, that the People of this Colony may have an Agent to solicit their Affairs at the Court of Great Britain, dependent only on the Assembly?

Answ. I will.

We further intend, at the Place of Election, before we give a Vote for the Two, to demand of them, Whether they agree to those Answers to the above Eight Questions? Which if they agree to, then we will vote for them, but otherwise not.

And further, if in the mean Time you can propose any other reasonable Thing, that they ought to be limited to, or if we think of any Thing further, we shall in like Manner examine them upon it.

Gentlemen,

We have made Enquiry, Whether you took any Precautions when you set up your Four? And are really concerned to hear that no Care hath been taken by you on this Head, but that you have trusted yourselves and us, as far as you could, to their Discretion; a Power too unbounded for any Man to be possessed of. Were we not concerned in them as you you (which we are by our conſenting that Two of your Four ſhall be choſen, by our ſetting up only Two) we ſhould take no Notice of this: But as we have an Intereſt in them, equal with you, we conceive it is our Duty, both to you our Fellow Citizens and to ourſelves and Poſterity, who muſt ſuffer with you if they act wrong, ſtill to remind you who are for the Four, to examine them publickly upon the Intentions of their Conduct, that you may have a Right to uſe them as they ſhall deſerve, if they act contrary to your Inclinations and their own Promiſes, and betray the Truſt repoſed in them. And ſhould they refuſe to explain themſelves publickly on theſe Heads, we entreat you as yet, to think of other Perſons that will; and if you cannot find any amongſt you who will ſo explain themſelves, we can preſent to you enough of as good Men, who will make thoſe Promiſes and perform them.

On Tueſday the thirteenth Inſt. about Ten in the Morning, the Sheriff, Candidates and Electors of both Sides met at the uſual Place in the Commons, where the Four were ſet up as Candidates on the one Side, and the Two on the other Side, and a Poll being demanded, the People proceeded to the City Hall for taking of the Poll.

The Sheriff and Candidates being ſeated in the uſual Place, Mr. David Provooſt, Merchant in this City, purſuant to a previous Agreement of the Electors of the Two, ſtood upon the Table in Sight of all the People, near the Four Candidates, and ſhewed them the above mentioned Paper, which had been ſerved upon them the Day before, and told them that he was appointed to demand publickly of all the Candidates whether they agreed, That the Anſwers printed to the Queſtions, were the Anſwers of the ſeveral Candidates; he alſo acquainted them that he was requeſted to put one other Queſtion verbally to the Candidates, to which they alſo expected an Anſwer, which other Queſtion and Anſwer expected was to the following Purpoſe.

Queſt. 9. Will you ſerve this City gratis in the Station of an Aſſemblyman, if you are Choſen.

Anſwer. I will.

After Mr. David Provooſt had thus explained to the Four Candidates the ſaid Queſtions, with the Anſwers expected to them as above, he then came to the Two Candidates on the other Side, and demanded of them ſeverally whether they agreed, that the Anſwers above were their Anſwers to the Queſtions which were ſet before them? Whereupon they, to wit, Mr. Alexander and Mr. Van Horne ſeverally anſwered that they were, and ſeverally gave him the Hand in Sight of all the People in further Token of ſuch their Agreement.

Then Mr. Provooſt made the ſame Demand of the Four Candidates ſeverally, to which they in like Manner ſeverally anſwered, and ſeverally gave him their Hands in Sight of all the People, in further Token of ſuch their Agreement; excepting only that Mr. Rome one of the Four Candidates did not agree to ſerve gratis.

Then Mr. David Provooſt ſtanding upon the Table, turned from the Candidates to the Electors, and with a loud Voice declared that all the Candidates had conſented and agreed to the above Anſwers to the Queſtions, except as to Mr. Rome's ſerving Gratis as before; and ſaid he hoped they were all honeſt Men and would perform their Promiſes.

Then the Poll began and continued till about 11 at Night, when the Poll ſtood thus:

John Moore,	510	C. Van Horne,	396.
Adolph Philipſe,	425	J. Alexander,	381.
William Rome,	411
David Clarkſon.	403

And then the two Candidates told the Four that they did not deſire further to continue the Poll open, and wiſhed the Four Joy with their Election. The Four invited the Two to drink a Glaſs with them at Mr. Ingliſs's, and the Two accordingly went and drank the Healths of the Four, declaring they doubted not but that their Conduct would be agreeable to their Promiſes, and while it was ſuch they could not fail of giving Satisfaction to the People of this City.

N. B. The following Queſtion with the Anſwer to it, was alſo put verbally to the Two Candidates the Night before the Election; to which Anſwer they agreed, and Mr. Provooſt was requeſted to put it to all the Candidates along with the other Queſtions, but by the Failure of his Memory it was neglected. The Queſtion and Anſwer after ſuch Agreement were reduced to Writing, the Night before the Election; and it was underſtood by the Two to be included in Mr. Provooſt's Demand of them herein before mentioned, and they were in theſe Words.

Queſt. Will you uſe your beſt Endeavours that an Act be paſſed for the continuing the Bills of Credit of 1714, and 1717, and the Exciſe Act for Sinking them? And will you make it a Condition previous to the Granting any Support, ſo far as in your Power is.

Anſw. I will.

April 2. The SPEECH of the Honourable GEORGE CLARKE, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New-York,

To the General Aſſembly of the ſaid Colony, the 27th of March, 1739.

GENTLEMEN,

I Take this Opportunity to Congratulate you on the Birth of a Prince of His Majeſty's Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe; an Event propitious to the Proteſtant World in General, and more eſpecially to all his Majeſty's Dominions.

Gentlemen of the Aſſembly,

I iſſued Writs for the Election of this Aſſembly, and for their Meeting ſo ſoon as the Seaſon of the Year would admit of it, there being many Things that require your early Attention; and I hope you have brought with you Diſpoſitions equal to your Abilities, to conſult his Majeſty's Honour, and the true Intereſt of the People whom you Repreſent, which are ſo linked together, that they cannot be ſeparated without evident Injury to your Country. Your Duty and Allegiance exact the firſt, and the other is expected from you by the People: You have, beſide theſe Obligations, many others that ought to excite your Gratitude to the beſt of Kings: Your Trade and Navigation are ſecured by a Guard Ship, your Frontiers and Settlements by a Land Force, which are maintained at a great Expence to England, while you reap the Benefit of this his Majeſty's Bounty & Goodneſs, both in the Protection they give you, and in the large Sums of Money that they expend yearly among you: You are Happy in the full Enjoyment of your Sacred and Civil Rights and Liberties; in a word, you are poſſeſt of all thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings that are peculiar to Engliſh-men, and which the People of other Countries would purchaſe at the Expence of all they are worth. Being in this happy Situation, it ought to be your principal Care to ſhew your Gratitude, in Supporting his Majeſty's Government by which you are protected in the Enjoyment of thoſe Felicities; Look up then to the great Example of a Britiſh Parliament, who expreſs their Duty, their Zeal and Affection to His Majeſty, by devoting their firſt Councils to His Service, in giving him an Honourable Revenue. Do you ſo likewiſe, and then you may with Confidence, hope for the Continuance of His Royal Favour in all things reaſonable; The ſureſt Means to make you a Flouriſhing People.

There is long Arrear due for the Support of Government, the yearly Amount whereof you well know. I Therefore earneſtly Recommend it to you, to make ſpeedy and ample Proviſion for the Payment of it, and to give to his Majeſty, for ſuch Term of Years as former Aſſemblies have done before you, an Ample and Honourable Revenue for the future Support of his Government, which His Majeſty expects from you. Former Aſſemblies have done this ever ſince the Happy Revolution, and ſome of them at a Time when the Province was far leſs Populous, when your Trade was much inferior to what it now is, and when a Detachment of the Militia was yearly ſent to Albany, at a large Expence to the Colony, to defend the Frontiers againſt the French, with whom we were then at War; A Situation widely different from the happy peaceful State wherein you now are, and which I hope you will long enjoy, by the powerful Influence of his Majeſty's juſt and ſteady Meaſures, guided by the moſt conſummate Wiſdom.

The Fort in the Mohawks Country, and one Part of the Barracks in Fort George will tumble down, if they be not ſpeedily repaired, I therefore recommend it to you, to make effectual effectual Provision for those Purposes; Your own Interest requires it, as it will be much less Expence to repair than to rebuild them.

I have again sent some Persons to reside in the Sinnecaa's Country this Year, to defeat the Attempts of the French, who are always industrious to alienate the Affections of the Indians from us; and I make no doubt (if you will enable me) of obtaining from the Sinnecaa's some Land at Tierondequat, sufficient to erect a Fort on, and to raise Provisions to victual a Garrison, which will be of great use in that Place, in securing both your Furr Trade, and the Fidelity of the Six Nations: And as they are Matters of great Importance to you, they require your present Attention.

This is the Year that the Six Nations expect, of Course, to meet me at Albany, but as the late Assembly neglected to give the usual Sums of Money for that Service, I recommend it to you; I for my Part will be ready to meet them there, if you enable me, and I hope you will do it in time, lest a Disappointment of their Expectation, should shake their Fidelity to his Majesty, the Consequences whereof may prove fatal to the Province.

The Peopling of that Part of the Country to the Northward of Sarachtoga will be of great Advantage to the Province, as well in strengthening the Frontiers, as in enlarging your Trade: Several Families arrived here the last Fall from North-Britain, who are willing to settle there, and more are expected from thence this Year; but as they are Poor, they will want some Help to enable them to subsist their Families, until, by their Labour, they can raise Provisions to subsist themselves; And I am persuaded that you will give them some needful Assistance.

Gentlemen,

I have receiv'd his Majesty's Disapprobation of the Act of Assembly, past in the Year 1737, For the frequent Election of Representatives to serve in General Assembly, and for the frequent Meeting of the General Assembly so elected, a Copy whereof I have ordered to be laid before you, that it may be entered in your Journals.

The Act pass'd in the Year 1699, For the Regulating and Returning able and sufficient Jurors, being expir'd, I recommend it to you to pass a Bill for the like Purpose, and that it may be more effectual, you will do well to consult the Laws of England on that head, and to make it as agreeable thereto as the Circumstances of the Province will admit of; such a Law will be of great Advantage to the Province, in guarding and fencing the Lives, Liberties and Properties of the People, from the Dangers that may otherwise threaten them; and such a Law too ought to be perpetual.

Gentlemen of the Assembly,

The making good the Deficiencies of the Revenue, and giving a future Support for a Term of Years, require at this time your most serious Consideration, as the Tranquility and Prosperity of the Province do in the highest Degree depend thereon; nor is your own Reputation or Honour less concern'd therein, since your Actions, not Words, must be the Measure of your Zeal and Affection to his Majesty's Person and Government; you have now an Opportunity to shew that your Zeal and Affection are nothing short of that which former Assemblies have manifested on the like Occasion: You will thereby too have Opportunities to establish a perfect and lasting Harmony in the Province, and to gain the Applause of every Well-Wisher to the Country, by passing such Bills as may conduce to make you an opulent People. Do you what is incumbent on you, and you will find me ready to assent to such Bills as are not inconsistent with his Majesty's Honour and my Duty.

GEORGE CLARKE.

AS there was nothing in the Advertisement signed Prudence Grinaway, that could have furnished Mr. Robinson with the least Pretext for making use of my Name in his Answer to it, he cou'd have no other Design in mentioning me after the Manner he has done, than to blast my Character at my first entering into Business. Hence it is that he has pleased to represent me as a sorry Tool, sent on an Errand by others, when I came to demand of him the Writings belonging to Grinaway; which is very well understood to mean, that I was prompted to it by a certain Gentleman of the Law, whom Mr. Robinson is as fond of vilifying, if he could, as he is of slandering my self. The Suggestion of being set on, is as absurd as it is base, because the Gentleman pointed at was retained on the other side of the Question, by those who are in Possession of the Estate that Prudence Grinaway claims a Right to. And I must farther add, in Justice to my self, since Mr. Robinson has thought fit, in so gross a Manner, to lug me into a News-Paper by the Head & Shoulders, that what he said concerning me, as far as it relates to Grinaway's Affair, (except my going to his House) is absolutely false; hoping that my Negation will at least find as much Credit as his Assertion.

I acknowledge that the Advertisement was drawn up by me, as I took it from the Subscriber's Mouth; the Truth of which she is ready to testify on Oath. As to that Part of it which Mr. Robinson seems more than ordinarily displeased at, where, all Person's are warn'd not to make any purchase of the Estate from John Robinson, whether by that Name or any other Name; it could only intend that Grinaway might possibly have made a Deed to a Friend of Mr. Robinson in Trust for him; which Supposition seems well-grounded, since he has acknowledged, that a nameless Client of his took Grinaway's Security drawn by Mr. Robinson himself on half a Sheet of Paper. How he should put any other Construction on those Expressions, I cannot imagine, except he really belives me to be as egregious a Fool as he has described me in the Mercury; for nobody of common Understanding could suppose that he would here take a Deed to himself by any other Name than that which he here goes by. Whether Mr. Robinson has alter'd his or no, was not my Concern in drawing up the Advertisement, and therefore I never once glanced at it. Whether a Person's changing his Name, abstractedly considered, be Malum in se, criminal in itself, I shall not take upon me to determine: But whether the CAUSE which obliged Mr. Robinson, as it's said, to conceal himself under a fictitious Appellation, be really criminal, will be the Question. Therefore, I advise him to reserve his Arguments on the last Point to a more proper Place, where probably he may soon have Occasion to make use of them.
